Lori and Kristine: LPA's prospective purchaser continues to make progress, and with your inquiry, we are reaching out to them to get a better sense of their timetable as we prepare to resubmit LPA's updated financial information and suggested revisions to the consent decree based on the current anticipated transaction terms. I will follow up with you soon. Thanks for your email.

Hello, Bill. I am checking on the status of the latest prospective purchase of the Linnton Plywood property. From your correspondence in March and our conversations around that time, I was expecting that EPA would have received updated financial information on LPA and a revised consent decree by now. I would appreciate hearing from you on the status of the purchase. Thanks.
